Head's Message

The planning and organisation of school visits is well underway for the academic year ahead. Earlier this week Dahl Class visited the pop-up Fire Brigade Museum and Shakespeare Class enjoyed an orienteering experience at Hyde Park. They proudly represented our school and demonstrated that they could persevere to consistently demonstrate impeccable behaviour and manners.

We've also invited experts to Conway to further enrich our learning. Through our long-standing partnership with Kite Studios, Lewis Class and Dickens Class have been getting creative! Some of their gorgeous art work is framed, displayed and waiting for admirers in our library.

Finally we had an external monitoring review this week led by a HMI Inspector. The monitoring team confirmed that Conway continues to maintain its Outstanding status through its commitment to being a high attaining school with a broad and balanced curriculum. Teachers and children were particularly commended for their passion and motivation for learning. Well done to the team!

Have a lovely weekend!
