

Head's Message

This half-term has been a productive and successful start to the academic year. Through their class assemblies, Lewis Class and Shakespeare Class have provided a fantastic reminder of just how much learning can be achieved in a matter of weeks with relentless perseverance and aspiration.

A special mention must go to our youngest children in Carroll Class. Their inviting classroom celebrates their achievements this half-term, with much wonderful art work and emerging understanding of sounds and numbers. They have already developed a love of learning, which can be seen clearly in the attached snaps from their recent photoshoot with Ofsted!

Enjoy the half-term break, we look forward to welcoming you back on Tuesday 31st October for our Magical and Spooky Story Day!

Magical and Spooky Story Day – Tuesday 31st October 2017

On Tuesday 31st October 2017, all classes will indulge their imagination and delve into the world of magical and spooky stories during their class story time.

The children may wear non-uniform on this day. Fancy dress is optional but if children choose to dress-up, we would love to see some magical or spooky characters from books. If they have a copy of the book that their character features in, we encourage them to bring it to school to share with their class!

Welcome

While Mrs Mabile will be greatly missed for the duration of her maternity leave, we are pleased to welcome Rachael Farish to the team. Following a relocation from Edinburgh, where she trained and taught in inner city schools, Miss Farish will take up the role of Year 3/4 Literacy Specialist Teacher from after half-term.

School Meals

With the exciting addition of our very own school kitchen in the new building, we’re investigating the possibility of preparing and serving our own school meals on site as early as April 2018. In preparation for this change we will be welcoming views from children and parents to ensure we devise a menu of enticing and healthy lunches. Further details of how you can get involved in this process will be shared next half-term.

In the meanwhile, we are working with Chartwells to review the current provision for school meals. We have been assigned a nutritionist to support us in our mission to ensure the school lunches consistently promote a balanced and healthy diet. There are plans in motion for a 'Taster Session', which will provide the opportunity to understand and ask questions related to how the meals are nutritionally balanced and most importantly taste test the produce!

Further information relating to Chartwells and their philosophy can be found at: <https://loveschoolmeals.co.uk/>

Pelican Music

In January, we will welcome Pelican Music at Ark Conway. Pelican Music will provide opportunities for high quality music tuition. Further details will be shared following an introductory assembly for the children in November.
