Head's Message

A shorter week than normal for us at Conway this week but it has still been packed full of learning and enjoyment for all the staff and pupils. In particular, I have noticed our Y6 pupils displaying why they are such good role models for learning for the rest of our school. They have an important week next week with their End of Key Stage 2 assessments, but I am very confident in their abilities due to all the hard work and effort they have put in so far this year.

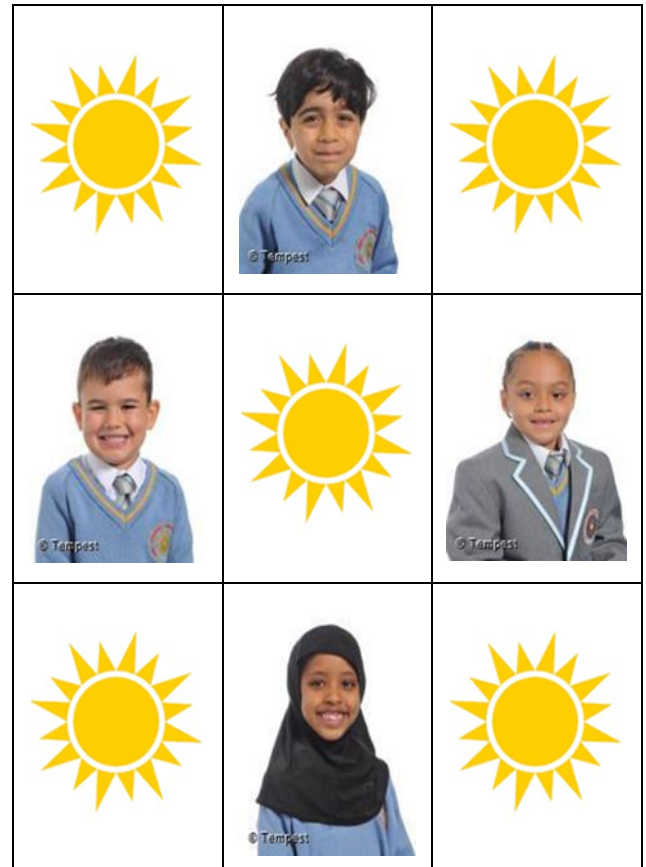

It's also an important weekend for the country as we are soon to coronate a new King. We were very lucky to be joined today by a King of our own. It was of course King Gabriel of Conway who was successfully coronated in this morning's assembly. King Gabriel arrived at Westminster Abbey via his golden carriage, which bore an uncanny resemblance to the wheely chair in my office, before being anointed in front of a delighted audience. He wore his crown with pride and even gave us a particularly good royal wave from his balcony at Buckingham Palace.

I hope you all have an enjoyable long weekend and a final message to Year 6: Make sure you look after yourselves and rest up so that you can finish next week feeling proud of your efforts. We are all rooting for you!

Home Learning

Please share all completed home learning work on Seesaw. You can find more information about Seesaw by following this link: Seesaw home learning.

Reception: This week we have been learning about people who keep us safe. Draw a portrait of someone who keeps others safe in our community, such as a doctor or a police officer. Upload your work or bring it in to show on Friday.

Year 1: We have been thinking about colour and how they represent different emotions. Could you share your favourite piece of artwork done by a known artist and explain how it makes you feel. Bonus points if you go to a gallery and see it in real life!

Year 2: We need some art to decorate our art tree! Create a piece of artwork based on something we have done in Year 2 and bring it in to go on the art tree display.

Year 3: In maths this week, we have been talking about parallel and perpendicular lines! What parallel and perpendicular lines can you find in real life? Take as many photos as you can and share them on Seesaw so we can share them in Maths lessons next week.

Year 4: What can you find out about the gods and goddesses the Ancient Maya worshipped? Upload your findings to Seesaw!

Year 5: We have been learning about invertebrates! Research an invertebrate of your choice and present your findings in a creative way.

Year 6: You've all been working so hard in class with your revision. Keep this up at home over the long weekend for our final push. Little and often is the best method. You've got this!
