Head's Message

Wow. Wow. Wow.

I am almost lost for words, which certainly takes some doing! This time last week, we had only just heard the news that schools in London would be closed for at least two weeks. Since then, we have heard that all schools in the country will remain closed until February half term. The Ark Conway team have been working non-stop to set up our very exciting Remote Learning offer and to provide our Community Classrooms. I am blown away by how much the team have managed to achieve in this time. Seeing so many pupils log in today and yesterday made all of this feel so worthwhile. Similarly, your feedback has been so wonderful to hear so I do want to thank you for taking the time to share this with us.

I also know what a challenge this must be for you, the parents of Ark Conway. With children being at home instead of in school, I am sure this is creating additional work for you and so I would like to say a huge thank you to all for being so supportive and ensuring your pupils are engaging with their learning. They will be reaping the rewards of your commitment for years to come.

We are planning carefully for the term ahead to ensure that all pupils can make great progress, as well as joining in with a number of the additional activities that would usually be taking place in school in this Spring term. We look forward to sharing more information with you over the coming weeks.

Have a very happy and safe weekend everyone!

Riddle of the Week

Each week our Student Council share a riddle. If you think you know the answer to the riddle below, write it down on a piece of paper and share it with your class in your live lesson on Monday!

I have a head, I have a tail, but I have no body. What am I?

Caught Being Kind

This week the Ark Conway parents were caught being kind when a number of them shared their positive feedback on our Remote Learning offer! Thank you very much for your kind words, they mean such a lot to the whole team and are really motivating!
